Misses Elaine McDearmon and Elva Stratton delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at a bridge party at the home of Mrs. C. F. James. Red, white and blue was the color scheme in decorations and other George Washington ideas were most attractively carried out. Eight tables were playing. Miss Kate Franklin won high score and Miss Bessie Zimmerman won low score prizes. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Uncle Nelson Bocock died near Rose Bower last night, one of our oldest colored citizens.

Mrs. H. St. Geo. Tucker

Mrs. Martha Sharpe Tucker, wife of Representative Henry St. George Tucker, Lexington, of the Tenth Virginia district, died at Atlantic City where she had been under treatment. Mrs. Tucker had been in ill health for a long time.

Mrs. Tucker was a native of Wilkesbarre, Pa., and married Mr. Tucker in 1903, but they have no children. She was a graduate of Vassar College.

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church in Lexington.

Mrs. Walker Harding

This young lady died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cheatham, in Lynchburg Monday in the 26th year of her age. She is survived by her husband and two children. Her remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery in Lynchburg yesterday. Mrs. Harding was well-known in this county, where she had many relatives and friends. She was known here as Alice. Her husband is a well-known farmer of Stonewall district.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the friends of the late C. W. Hancock for sympathy and condolence extended us.

Goats Replace Dogs in Laboratory Work

Tuscaloosa, Ala.—Resourcefulness is as necessary in the scientific laboratory as it is in industry.

Dogs are among the most valuable animals for laboratory study in the medical sciences. In the courts, however, they are difficult to obtain. Justice is heavily afflicted with all sorts of unskilled pedlerce, hardly anybody is willing to part with their dogs even for a good price to be used in vivisection experiments and thereby to alleviate the ills to human beings.

No such sentimental feeling, however, attaches to goats. And they abound in the South. So Dr. George T. Pack of the University of Alabama medical school has turned to these mammals for experimental work in surgery and pathology, finding them valuable substitutes for dogs and much less expensive. They are not only as easy to handle as dogs, he has learned, but they stand operations well and their reactions in certain pathological experiments are satisfactory.

Six Pieces of Chicken Held Ample for Bride

Clarksburg, W. Va.—If a husband can furnish his wife six pieces of fried chicken, six biscuits, a pair of shoes, a dress, two suits of underwear and six boxes of snuff in a week, there is no ground for an action for nonsupport.

Such was the ruling handed down in Magistrate R. Edward Kidd's court here in a case wherein John Six, fifty-three, was sued for nonsupport by his bride, Naomi Six, sixteen years old Six, employee of a dairy, said his girl wife wouldn't even kiss him after he had bought her the things enumerated and lived with him only a week. Magistrate Kidd dismissed the case.

JESUS AND THE TWELVE

LESSON TOPIC—Mark 3:13-19; 6:7-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel unto every creature.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Chooses Twelve Men.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Twelve Apostles and Their Work.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus' Call to Service.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Training of the Twelve.

1. The Twelve Ordained (Mark 3:13-19).

Jesus, knowing that His earthly career would be cut short, made provision for the carrying forward of His work after He was gone by calling and ordaining the twelve. Before doing this He spent a whole night in prayer (Luke 6:12). The burden of His prayer is indicated by what He immediately did. From among His disciples He chose twelve, whom He ordained for a twofold purpose.

1. "That they might be with Him" (v. 14).

Fellowship with the Lord is not only the highest privilege of a disciple but the indispensable qualification for witnessing for Him. Personal association with Jesus Christ—the interaction of personalities—the impact of His personality upon ours is the essential preparation for Christian service.

2. "That He might send them forth to preach" (vv. 14, 15).

To proclaim the good news of salvation to the lost world was the supreme mission of the disciples. Their credential for this mission was the endowment of the power of the Spirit—"To heal sickness and to cast out devils" (v. 15). Concerning those who were to be Christ's messengers observe:

(1) That twelve were ordained (v. 14). This was the beginning of the process by which the triune God was to make known His grace to the whole world, therefore He sends forth the number of men corresponding to that purpose. The number twelve is the product of the heavenly three and the earthly four indicating the purpose of the triune God to reveal Himself to the four quarters of the world.

(2) Their characteristics. (a) Men of average ability. They were not from schools and colleges, yet men of mental cugacity and efficiency. This has been the history of the Christian church. Not many noble, not many wise after the flesh are called (1 Cor. 1:26). (b) Middle ranks of society. They were not chosen from among the rich, neither from among paupers. The most efficient workers are those who are able to sympathize with the common people. (c) Diverse temperamental gifts. They were so grouped as to have impulse and leadership—reflection and questioning went together, and among them were found men of practical business ability.

II. The Twelve Sent Forth (Mark 6:7-13).

1. They were sent forth in pairs (v. 7).

Two reasons may be assigned for this. (1) A cheering and comforting companionship for the workers.

(2) Confirmation of testimony. In the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established. People would more likely believe that which was verified by two.

2. Supernatural authentication of their mission (v. 7). He gave them power over unclean spirits. He endued them with power to work miracles, in order to demonstrate their divine commission.

3. Their maintenance (vv. 8, 9). They were to depend wholly for their support upon the Lord who sent them. Having received the message and the power gratuitously they were to give them out in the same way (Matt. 10:9).

4. Contentment with hospitality (v. 10).

According to Matt. 10:11, inquiry was to be made upon entering a city to a reputable place to stay. Upon [illegible] directed to such a place the [illegible]onary was to be content.

The responsibilities of the hearer. (v. 11).

[illegible]gnment was to be pronounced up[illegible] who rejected their message. Their message and work (vv. [illegible]

[illegible]went out and preached that [illegible]ould repent. Matthew adds, [illegible]kingdom of Heaven is at hand" (Matt. 10:7). This means that the kingdom promised to Israel was at hand, that the Messiah was present and ready to set up His kingdom. In confirmation of this message they cast out many devils, anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

God's Overflowing Love

There is such a thing as putting ourselves in the way of God's ever flowing love and letting it beat upon us till the response of love to Him comes, not by struggle, not even by meditation, but by necessity, as the echo comes when the sound strikes the rock.—Phillips Brooks.

HIXBURG

Mrs. J. R. Fore, who has been on the sick list for several weeks is now enjoying her usual health also Mrs. Edwin Fore has about recovered after having trouble with her eye sight.

Mrs. Ella Swan was not so well last week but is better at this writing.

Mr. John McCue suffered an attack of flu last week but is out again.

We have refrained from making any serious complaint about the tardiness of the Hixburg school truck but something should be done. The teachers complain to the children and say if you fail to be here on time you loose your grade and still it is not their fault, and some thirty or more trips have been made by the different paicons, such is no business, and we would like to see some improvement.

Mrs. W. L. Ford is not so well at this time.

The stork visited this neighborhood again on last Thursday leaving a boy in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Rice Wilson Jr. and mother are doing well under the efficient care of Miss Minnie Drinkard.

Old Mr. Neiswander is some times seen going about as if lost, there is no danger in this old man but naturall women d not feel safe when they see one in this condition. This old man is to be pitied and should be cered for. The good people of Pamplin have been sending him something to eat.

Surely it is for the benefit of the poor mule that the Supervisors are trying to care for by forcing the owners to keep out of the way mud-holes and mires in the road, for the only real damage that could be done would be to drown or smother the poor beast in some of those terrible mires.

ROCKS NEWS

The news of the death of Miss Ethel Anderson came as a shock to all who knew her. She was stricken with appendicitis Sunday, was taken Friday to a Roanoke hospital where she died in 15 minutes after arriving there. She was only 23 years of age, she leaves to mourn their loss, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Anderson, two sisters, Mrs. Roy Moore of Montgomery, W. Va., and Mrs Ned Almond of Lynchburg, and one brother, Jesse. Besides the immediate family Ethel leaves a large circle of friends who will miss her greatly. She will be laid to rest in Rocks church cemetery, Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m. The floral offerings were beautiful. We extend to the bereaved family our most heartfelt sympathy in this their hour of trouble. Mr. Anderson was at the bedside of his sick father in south-west Va. at the time of the death of his daughter Ethel.

Mr. W. T. Ransone is back home from the hospital and is much better.

Mr. Phill Paulett had the misfortune to get his leg broken Monday. He is getting on as well as could be expected.

Miss Dorothy Marsh spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Ransone, Miss Vara Hamilton and Mr. Rhomy Wilson spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. J. R. Ransone.

PAMPLIN

Mr. and Mrs. Currie, returned missionaries from China, spoke at the Presbyterian church on Sunday night. They were charming and interesting. The many perils which they endure in China make us feel that we should give more liberally to foreign missions. Mr. and Mrs. Currie were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard while in town.

The W. C. T. U. was delightfully entertained in the hospitable home of Mrs. R. D. Baldwin on Wednesday evening. An interesting program was rendered. Those taking part were Mrs. O. E. Peterson, Mrs. Lewis Paulette, Mrs. H. T. Terry and Miss Lucy Rice. Delightful refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Callayhas.

Mr. Gabe Garrison who lives near Pamplin, died Tuesday night. He was about 75 years old and a good Christian, faithful in the performance of his duty and a man whose integrity was unquestionable. We extend to the family our deepest sympathy but feel that their loss is his gain.

As this letter goes to press we learn of the death of Mr. John Marshall. This servant of God passed to his reward on Thursday morning at six o'clock. We bow in humble submission to the Father's will and sympathize with loved ones who survive him.

H. T. Terry is spending a portion of the week in Baltimore on a business trip.

Mrs. Wiley Richardson and son Herbert spent Wednesday and Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fore at Appomattox.

Miss Kate Franklin is training her music pupils in an operetta which will be given at the High School Auditorium. Two plays, entitled "Who Kissed Barbara," and the "Silent System" will be given at the Auditorium at an early date.

Chestnut Grove

As I have'nt seen anything from this community for some time will send in a few items.

Mr. W. N. Morris and children are sick with measles.

Mrs R. L. Harris and children are suffering with colds.

Miss Doris Drincr who has been visiting in the home of Mrs. W. B. Forbes left Sunday for her home in Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Forbes celebrated their silver wedding the 18th inst. Owing to the bad roads the crowd was not as large as they expected, but those that were there enjoyed the old fashioned dinner. Those from a distance were Mrs. W. F. Harding, Messrs. Willie and Joe Harding, Miss Catherine Harding and Miss Doris Cavenaugh of Richmond, Va., Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Forbes, Sheppards, Va. They received some nice and useful presents, among them was a silver cake plate, silver spoons and sugar shell. All left expressing their congratulations and the enjoyment of the day, and wishing them much happiness, also the desire that they may attend their golden wedding.

SPOUT SPRING

Mr. J. E. Chick, who has been in Lynchburg sometime for treatment, returned to his home Sunday very much improved.

Misses Lucille and Nellie Bates spent Friday in Lynchburg.

Mrs. F. O. Jones, who has been confined to her home with flu, is able to be out.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stratton, of Stonewall, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Smith accompanied by Miss Lucille Marshall, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with Miss Frances Smith.

Misses Susie and Sara Bates attended a dance at Phenix Friday night.

Little Jane Jones, who has been very sick with flu, is out again.

Mr. O. H. Spencer and daughter, Bertha May, and Miss Ruth Covington, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Spencer.

Mr. A. B. Bates, of Rhine Retreat and E. L. Bates, of Lynchburg, spent the week-end with home people.

Beckham

It seems that we are still having some ground-hog weather.

Mr. W. E. Moore continues in bad health.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Taylor both continue ill. Mrs. H. O. Martin spent last Saturday with Mrs. Taylor.

Miss Elizabeth Moore has returned home after spending several days at Appomattox with relatives.

Frank Coleman, of near Toga, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Moore.

Mrs. Bennett Harding gave a birthday party last Friday night in honor of her brother, Leonard Martin. A very pleasant time was reported.

New York Has Appetite

It has been estimated that it takes 4,000 miles of freight cars to hold the food consumed in New York every year, says Gas Logic.

Resolutions of Respect

Forasmuch as it has pleased Almighty God, in His wise providence, to take out of this world our beloved brother Charles W. Hancock in the seventy-fifth year of his age, therefore be it resolved:

1. That by his translation our church has sustained an irreparable loss, our Sunday school its staunchest leader and supporter and our community its greatest friend and benefactor.

2. That while we humbly and reverently submit to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we deeply mourn our loss and solemly resolve, God being our helper, to rededicate ourselves to the great tasks that engaged his best energies and resources for more than half a century.

3. That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our church, a copy be sent to each member of his family and other copies be sent to the local and denominational press.
